AFTER YOU HAVE VOTED FOR THESE TOWN OFFICES,
LOOK DOWN ON THE VOTING MACHINE
AND VOTE FOR RTM CANDIDATES IN YOUR DISTRICT.

TO THE PEOPLE OF WESTPORT:

The League of Women Voters of Westport, as part of its non-partisan program of voters service, is happy to present to the people of Westport resumes of the background of the candidates who are running for town offices and the Representative Town Meeting (RTM).

From among these candidates the voters will select the individuals who will conduct the business of the Town of Westport for the next two years.

In order to bring the function of each office into sharper focus for the voter, we have submitted a number of questions, each pertinent to the office being sought, to the various candidates. They have been asked to attend public meetings, sponsored by the League of Women Voters, to speak to the questions.

In the interest of good government in Westport, you are urged to attend the open meetings, hear the candidates, enter the discussion yourself if you choose, and on Tuesday, November 7, Election Day, cast an informed vote.

Mrs. Edward R. Fay, Jr.
President
League of Women Voters of Westport

THESE ARE THE QUESTIONS

These are the QUESTIONS YOUR CANDIDATES for TOWN OFFICES will be asked at the League of Women Voters' meeting.

Monday, October 30, 8:15 P.M.
Long Lots Junior High School

First Selectman: What do you think the First Selectman's relationship should be with the four elected Boards — Board of Finance, Board of Education, Board of Tax Review, and Zoning Board of Appeals?

Board of Finance: Under the Town Charter, the R.T.M. was given the power to override the Board of Finance's recommendations, and, under the Charter, the Comptroller became the chief financial officer, what do you consider the function of the Board of Finance?

Board of Education: How can the Board of Education work with other town agencies to bring about better coordination of town planning?

Board of Tax Review: What is your theory on tax assessment?

Zoning Board of Appeals: Would you support a Charter amendment which would disqualify from Board membership a candidate with a conflict of interest?

These are the QUESTIONS YOUR CANDIDATES for the REPRESENTATIVE TOWN MEETING (RTM) will be asked at the League of Women Voters' meeting,

Thursday, November 2, 8-15 P.M.

Question: What do you think is Westport's most pressing problem within the province of the RTM?

Each District meeting will be held in the school in which they vote:

District 1—Bed. Jr. High School, District 2—Bed. Jr. High School, District 3—Coleytown Elem. School, District 4— Green's Farms Elem. School, District 5—Green's Farms Elem. School, District 6—Long Lots Jr. High School, District 7— Long Lots Jr. High School, District 8—Coleytown Elem. School.
