Press Release

(Westport, CT) - During the overnight hours of 08/31/2018, two United States Post Office mailboxes located at 275 Post Road East, Playhouse Square, were pried open and the contents stolen. A third U.S. Post Office mailbox located at 31 Riverside Avenue was also pried open and the contents stolen. The Office of the Postal Inspector and the Westport Police Department Detective Bureau are investigating these incidents. Residents depositing mail into these boxes in the last 24 hours are asked to remain vigilant and check the status of sent packages and checks. Residents who mailed checks at these locations within the last 24 hours should stop payment on them. Those who may have mailed documents containing sensitive personal information and account information should monitor their credit reports for fraudulent activity. Anyone experiencing issues believed to be related to these thefts is asked to contact the Westport Police Detective Bureau at (203) 341-6080.
