

Hi Donna, it shouldn't have any significant effect on our presentation, except perhaps, to make it more desirable, but due to costs and other factors the awnings will be shorter than shown in the first renderings.

Instead of extending over the entire sidewalk they will only extend about six or seven feet from the building.

Still a cantilevered design with no poles below.

Thanks for your patience with us.

Miggs

