Jay also raised questions about the feasibility of adding Doubleday to the Chelsea system. Carmen advised that the Chelsea technology people are still working on it and seeing if that is possible.

Tom Lowry asked for help lining the Bedford courts; Carmen responded that he has passed along this request. Tom also informed Carmen that the foam barriers are missing from Bedford.

Jay Walshon requested that the meetings of the RAC be held at least every other month. He also requested that the meetings be recorded.

Larry Schwartz advised that there is great interest in creating more pickleball courts.

Tom Lowrie advocated creating more pickleball courts at Town Center as an interim measure. David Acselrod advised that this would have to be discussed as a separate agenda item.

Jay Walshon and Tom Lowrie requested an “official” endorsement of the Longshore location from the RAC. Jay also asked for clear guidance regarding the mask requirement at Bedford. David Acselrod advised that Parks and Rec has advised that masks are required. Carmen advised that masks are required, largely driven by the Board of Education.

Charles Weisman stated that he was unsure about the mask mandate at Bedford. Carmen will confirm his understanding.
