EXTENSION LETTER

Connecticut General Statutes

Effective October 1, 2003 (Public Act 03-177), the maximum extension period that may be granted for an application involving a public hearing may not exceed 65-days in accordance with §8-7d. This includes Subdivisions, Re-subdivisions, Special Permits, ZBA applications, Zoning Map changes, Zoning Regulation changes, and Town Plan Amendments. As public hearing is always required in Westport for Site Plans, the State Statute is also applicable to Site Plans.
